Marlborough Open Gardens

Unfortunately Marlborough Merchant's House has had to cancel the June 9 Open Gardens. This is as a result of the late season, clash of dates and, most importantly, the sad loss of Jeffrey Galvin-Wright, a pivotal member of the organising group. It is definitely planned to hold this event again in 2014.

Church Working Party

Our heartfelt thanks to all who have volunteered their time, expertise and hard graft to help maintain our church, many we know personally and can thank openly; we would also like to thank those who give their time and talents quietly (mending a broken gate, adopting and maintaining parts of the churchyard, replacing the flag are a few examples). We value you, our volunteers, and your talents, given freely helping to keep our church open.

We are now also looking at some of the maintenance tasks that are outside the scope of our known willing volunteers and are currently reviewing quotes for gutter repairs, made possible thanks to the amazing response to our mission campaign in 2011 (thank you). On the radar, will need to repair the downpipe on the side of the tower in the coming months a rather bigger project - height being the real issue here.

Please contact Jane Fisher, Lesley Ayres or Nicky Irwin if you can offer any assistance; time; talent or maybe to adopt a section of churchyard.

"Paws for Tea"

I am delighted to let you know that the "Paws for Tea" Tea Party on 10th May in aid of The Blue Cross - which have been dedicated to the health and happiness of pets since 1897 - raised a total of £275. Thank you to everyone who came and made it such a successful Tea Party and also to those who couldn't make it, but donated anyway. We had a great time!!! Thank you - Lizzy.

Barbury International Horse Trials & GB Endurance

We have once again been given permission to hold cake and home baking stalls at Barbury International Horse Trials. 4th - 7th July and the GB Endurance event 17th & 18th August.

Examples of some items that sell: Sweet (cakes, tray bakes, scones, muffins, cup cakes. Savoury (sausage rolls, quiche, cheese scones) - there is no limit to what we can sell (as long as it is classified as home made). If baking is not your forte, we also welcome donations of ingredients - e.g. eggs, dried fruits, chocolate.

Last year we raised almost £2,000 and could have raised more - but ran out of stock on the Friday and Saturday at Barbury International,

If you can help please contact us:
